IV. Code of Ethics

As a member of this Association, I believe that it is part of our individual and collective responsibility to establish and maintain public confidence in the honesty, integrity, professionalism, and ability of members of the homebuilding, remodeling, and development industries. Based on my ethical beliefs and my personal sense of integrity, I attest to the following.

I PLEDGE MYSELF to place honesty, integrity, and industriousness above all else and to dedicate myself to all reasonable steps to ensure that service to my clients shall always be maintained at the highest possible level with superior workmanship.

I PLEDGE MYSELF to comply with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of the State of New York and the County/Countries of Westchester, Putnam, and/or Rockland for the health, safety, and welfare of its residents, including to utilize fully licensed contractors and subcontractors, and to maintain an active and responsible Workers Compensation and liability insurance policy with sufficient protection to my contractors' employees in the event of an on-the-job injury.

I PLEDGE MYSELF to respect the spirit and letter of my business contracts, including using clear and understandable terminology with my clients.

I PLEDGE MYSELF to provide equal opportunity or equal professional services to any person without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, veteran, or disability status, and to manage all of my employees, subcontractors, and suppliers with dignity and respect.

I PLEDGE MYSELF to refrain from any unfounded derogatory or disparaging comments concerning the practices of another business or individual in my industry, not shall I exaggerate or misrepresent the services I offer as compared with the services offered by others in my business or industry.

I PLEDGE MYSELF to take advantage of the education and training programs offered by the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) and Building and Allied Construction Industries (BACI) to ensure that I continue to be informed of the public policies, best practices, and other essential information which may affect my business and the building industry as a whole, and to work for the advancement of the building and realty industries through mutual support with my fellow members.

I assume the full responsibilities of this Code of Ethics freely and am solemnly mindful that these responsibilities are a part of my membership within the Association.
